

Weekly Words of Torah

Facilitator Guide

What inspiration and learning might we find in this week's Parsha (Torah Portion) about the issue of the hostages?

hillelsmith.info

וישב | כ"ג כסלו תשע"ו

Info For Facilitator

Target Audience:

Rabbis, clergy, teachers or leaders in Jewish faith settings

Length Of Program:

10-15 minute sermon

Materials & Prep:

- Download the Parsha Page and then make it your own

Vayeshev, from the Parsha Posters book by Hillel Smith

FRAMING THE ISSUE

Are you a Jewish leader who has an opportunity to teach and inspire based on the weekly Torah portion? Shabbat is a time for reflection, learning and inspiration. How might Torah and the Jewish weekly time cycle help you keep the issue of hostages in the forefront of your community's agenda?

Each week, come here to download the Parsha Page which provides access points and action items connected to this week's Parsha. Use this as a foundation and inspiration for writing and delivering your own personalized Dvar Torah.

Download Parsha Page

Everyone Counts

These materials were developed in partnership with the students and faculty of the Pardes Institute of Jewish Studies.

The #BringThemHomeNow Educational Toolkit